

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OLD DOMINION SPEEDWAY RACES TO BE TELEVISED ON VERIZON CABLE

Manassas, VA (June 1, 2010) – Old Dominion Speedway, the legendary NASCAR speedway in Manassas, Virginia says “Start Your Engines” to televised weekly racing on Verizon’s Cable One.

The recently signed agreement enables the broadcast of previously taped race events throughout the 2010 season. These events will include Friday night drag races sanctioned by the Southern Bracket Racing Association (SBRA), Saturday night short track racing featuring the NASCAR Whelen All-American Series and special events such as the very popular Crash Fest Demolition Derby.

Race Track Promoter, Steve Britt, is excited about the future of racing at the speedway. Britt says “The television agreement with Verizon will provide the track with great exposure in our local market. This is definitely a huge win for the race track, but more important, it’s a great opportunity for our race teams, and most of all our race fans. I am really excited about the future and the opportunities this will present for companies looking to sponsor the race teams and our race track.

About Old Dominion Speedway

Old Dominion Speedway located in Manassas, Virginia, is Washington DC’s Metropolitan Motorsports facility. The complex, located across from the Prince William County Fair Grounds includes an 1/8 mile drag strip and a 3/8 mile banked oval asphalt track.

From March through October, the Old Dominion Drag Strip is in full swing every Friday night featuring Top Sportsman, Rails, Motorcycles, 6.0 Street Stock and Foot Brake Classes. Its thrilling racing action sanctioned by the Southern Bracket Racing Association (SBRA) and is the oldest on the east coast.

Saturday nights are dedicated to NASCAR fans. The NASCAR Whelen All-American Series features NASCAR Late Model, Mini Stock, UCars and Virginia

Sprint Series racing action. ODS is the home of Late Model Stock Car weekly series, home of 2003 National Champion, Mark McFarland, and the track where some of the greatest NASCAR legends of all time have raced. ODS short track racing is legendary, exciting and fun for the entire family.

Come see tomorrows future NASCAR stars every Saturday night at Old Dominion Speedway, Where Racing is Truly Legendary!